As per letter received from Government of Maharashtra to the institution, the Department of History and NSS jointly organized the celebration programme on 'Sanvidhan Din'(Constitution Day) i.e. 26 November. In history, on this day constitution of India was accepted by the constitution assembly. It was the proud moment for Indian people to cherish and celebrate so government takes initiative by declaring this day as 'Sanvidhan Din'. As per government letter guidelines, we organized this programme on 25 November and read preamble of Indian constitution collectively.
