The United Nations General Assembly proclaimed 21st March of every year, the International Day of Forest (IDF) in 2012. The day celebrates and raises awareness of the importance of all types of forests. People are the main target of this campaign to get aware about the serious imbalance of food production and population explosion day by day including the contribution of forests in their lives. The theme for each International Day of Forests is chosen by the Collaborative Partnership on Forests. This year the theme for International Day of forests 2022 is 'Forest and Sustainable production and consumption'. To guide the students about various practices regarding the conservation of Flora and Fauna and to motivate students about conservation practices for forest flora and fauna, Department of Botany organized program on International day of forests and also organized Poster Competition on the theme Conservation of Forest for B.Sc. Final Year and M.Sc. Botany Students. From among UG and PG Classes about 7 students Participated in Poster competition and presented poster on various conservation themes regarding forest. Prof. V. L. Khalatkar was the chairperson for the program. Dr. M. M. Dhore Head of the Department, Dr. S. M. Deosthale and Prof. P. V.
